Worthy President

First of all I want to wish everyone a happy new year and hope everyone has a great and prosperous 2019. I would like to thank everyone who came out and enjoyed the New Year's Eve Celebration. It was a great success and could not happen without all of our great volunteers. We had some great food and the decorations were fantastic. I want to thank all the volunteers that cooked, decorated, worked the door, sold tickets, bartended, and the band Broken Cowboys for a great event. As always I look forward to our special events and seeing our members come in and enjoy our facility. I am always looking for volunteers to work on committees and help run special events. Please come join us for our Aerie meeting on Tuesdays and help us make important decisions to help our Aerie prosper. Without member input it is difficult to plan events that everyone enjoys. Thank you,
Brent Collee,
Worthy President
